Board of Directors

Jerre L. Stead

Chairman and CEO Jerre L. Stead, 74, is Chairman and CEO of IHS Markit, and was Chairman and CEO of IHS Inc. prior to the Merger. He became executive chairman of IHS Inc. on December 1, 2000. He led IHS Inc.'s successful IPO in November 2005 and served as both chairman and CEO from September 2006 until June 2013. Mr. Stead returned as CEO of IHS in June 2015 and continued in his role as chairman until the Merger. Under Mr. Stead's leadership since its IPO, IHS Inc. provided its shareowners a 28 percent compound annual growth rate. Mr. Stead began his career in 1965 at Honeywell, Inc., where he spent 21 years and held a number of executive management positions. He was the chairman and CEO of Honeywell-Phillips Medical Electronics from September 1980 to June 1982, and he returned to the United States as a group executive of the Homes and Buildings organization in July 1982. In 1987, he was named president and COO of the Square D Company, a leading manufacturer of electrical distribution and factory automation products. He was promoted to chairman, president and CEO in 1988 and served in that capacity through 1991. In 1992, Mr. Stead was named CEO of AT&T Global Business Communications Systems. He was promoted to executive vice president of AT&T and chairman and CEO of AT&T Global Information Solutions (NCR Corporation) in 1993. He served as a member of the AT&T Management Executive Committee. During this time, Mr. Stead was also the chairman of NCR Japan, a publicly traded company. In January 1995, Mr. Stead left AT&T to become chairman and CEO of Legent Corporation. He resigned eight months later after a successful merger with Computer Associates. Mr. Stead joined Ingram Micro in 1996 as chairman and CEO and took the company public on November 1, 1996—the largest IPO in history at that time for a technology company. Under his leadership, Ingram Micro grew from an $8 billion company to a $30 billion company conducting business in more than 120 countries. The company was number 41 in the Fortune 500 for the year 2000. Mr. Stead is a graduate of the University of Iowa in Iowa City, Iowa, where he earned a bachelor's degree in business administration, and of the Harvard University Advanced Management Program in Switzerland. Mr. Stead has served on 34 corporate boards during his career. In 2009, he was chosen as an "outstanding director" by the Financial Times—one of 55 in the past ten years. Mr. Stead served on the board of Mindspeed until May 2014 and on the board of the Salk Institute until September 2015. He is chairman of the Banner Alzheimer's Institute Foundation as well as chairman of the board of trustees of Garret-Evangelical Seminary. He is a past chairman of the National Electronic Manufacturers Association and the Center of Ethics and Values at the Garret-Evangelical Seminary.

Lance Uggla

President Lance Uggla, 54, is President of IHS Markit, responsible for the post-merger integration. He will become Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of IHS Markit on December 31, 2017, following the retirement of Jerre Stead. Prior to the Merger, Mr. Uggla was Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Markit Ltd. He led Markit's growth from a UK startup that he founded in 2003, offering the first daily credit default swap pricing service, to a public company with a market capitalisation of over $5 billion, providing business critical products and services to the world's leading financial institutions. Markit has won over 100 awards for its innovations and contributions to financial market resilience. Previously Mr. Ugglá was Vice Chair, Head of Europe and Asia at TD Securities and responsible for a USD 15 billion investment grade credit portfolio. Prior to that, he was Vice Chair, Head of Global Sales and Trading at CIBC World Markets. Mr. Ugglá holds an MSc from the London School of Economics and a BBA from the Simon Fraser University in Canada. He was awarded UK Entrepreneur of the Year by EY in 2012.
